The Old North Church & Historic Site Celebrates Independence Day with Paul Revere Readings, Live Music, Guided Tours and a Historical Scavenger Hunt Monday, July 4

WHAT:

On July 4, Old North Church & Historic Site will celebrate Independence Day with a one-day family friendly event. Known for "One if by land, and two if by sea," and the midnight ride of Paul Revere, the legacy of Boston's oldest surviving church as a symbol of liberty and active citizenship is discussed in history and civics classrooms nationwide.

This year's celebration will include the MIT Guild of Bellringers' ringing of Old North Church's eight change ringing bells; performances by the Griswold Ancients Fifes & Drums; a historical scavenger hunt; children's story time sessions; a pre-recorded reading of Longfellow's Paul Revere's Ride poem with the voices of visitors from across the country; demonstrations of a colonial-style printing press; and guided tours of the church's crypt, gallery, and bell tower.

WHO:

Catherine Matthews, Director of Education at the Old North Foundation, will be onsite for interviews and can speak to the national landmark's place in American history.

WHEN:

Monday, July 4, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

WHY:

Old North Church is a beacon of American independence.

Built in 1723, Old North Church is Boston's oldest surviving church building and most visited historic site. The Old North Church & Historic Site and its Foundation work to promote the values of freedom, liberty, and active citizenship through the interpretation and preservation of the Old North Church, K-12 educational experiences, site-specific programming, and historical analysis. The Foundation facilitates dialogue around the ongoing impact of slavery and racism in the U.S. and promotes active citizenship to create a more perfect union that reflects the promise of liberty and justice for all.
